AWS Organization

WELCOME!

Welcome to the University of Maryland. We're so happy to have you with us. You are now opening the door to a new and exciting part of your life. What you find beyond that door depends on you. The University of Maryland has much to offer, and if you take advantage of what is here, you will grow academically, socially, and culturally.

You are now a member of AWS—Associated Women Students. This is your organization, but is truly yours only if you become an active member. Your participation in the AWS program will prove a growing as well as a learning experience to you and to the University of Maryland. We are anxiously looking forward to knowing and working with you.

May you find opening the door at the University of Maryland a truly wonderful experience!

Alice Love
AWS President

AWS

The Associated Women Students is you. Every woman at Maryland is a member of AWS, the governing body for women students. AWS sets up and enforces standards of conduct and residence rules, sponsors cultural and social activities, and coordinates the women's activities on campus.

AWS work is carried out through committees. This is where you can take an active part by applying your talents on committees such as Cultural, Social, Dormitory Big Sister, Publicity, and Publications.

The Christmas Pageant, Bridal Fair, Women's Pay All Dance, Sadie Hawkins Race, Orphan's Party, and Summer Job Forum will need you. The last page in this book is a copy of an application. Fill one out and either mail it to Alice Love, AWS President, Student Union Building, University of Maryland or deliver it to room 113 in the Student Union Building when you arrive on campus.

The Executive Council

The Executive Council, as the administrative body of AWS, discusses and acts upon problems affecting the welfare of women students.

The Executive Council consists of the . . .

AWS Officers, Class Representatives, Committee Chairmen

The Judicial Board

Campus Judicial Board has jurisdiction over all violations of women's regulations, hears more serious cases referred to them by the residence judicial boards, coordinates judicial policy in all residences, and acts as an appeals board. Extreme violations of University rules and those which need immediate consideration are referred to the Dean of Women.

The Academic Board

The Academic Board's purposes are to encourage good scholarship and to improve faculty-student relations. The Board sponsors the Dormitory Scholarship Cup, which is given to the dormitory with the highest scholastic average. Aiding freshmen to adapt to college studies, presenting student-faculty coffee Hours, handling of tutoring arrangements in women's residences, and publicizing job placement forums are the ways in which the Board carries out its purposes.

Dormitory Council

The Dormitory Council, as the liaison between dormitories and the Executive Council, discusses and acts upon all proposed changes in rules affecting dormitories, helps to formulate dormitory policies and develop an interesting dormitory program.

Dormitory Government

Each dorm has a council consisting of a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and committee chairmen plus four class representatives. The house director is the council advisor.

These councils, as the administrative bodies, supervise conduct and scholarship within each dormitory and promote extra-curricular activities.

The officers and class representatives are elected in the fall. The chairman and members of the committees are appointed by a committee composed of the new officers, the incoming and retiring presidents, and the house director from applications entered by interested students.

Sorority Council

The Sorority Council, as the liasion with the Executive Council, discusses and acts upon proposals and problems of the sorority houses.

Sorority Resident Government

Each sorority house has a judicial board composed of sorority president, house president, house director, and any others.

The Advisory Board

The AWS Advisory Board is composed of members of the Dean of Women's staff.

MARYLAND AND YOU

Welcome to the Maryland Campus. It is all yours now.

Studies

First of all, the University is a community of learning. Much of your time will be devoted to academic development. A weekly study schedule that allows time, in addition to classes and studying, for meals, relaxation, plenty of sleep, exercise, recreation, and campus activities is a must.

Smiles

Maryland students come from all over the world. Be interested and share experiences with those around you. Learn names of all your classmates soon. Wear your orientation hat and name card; they will help you get acquainted!

Activities

There are activities for every interest and talent. A wise freshman partakes sparingly of these activities the first semester as she adjusts to college living. It is best to do a few things well.

Group Living

Dormitory life is fun, but large group living calls for extra consideration of others. One of your first and most important friends is your roommate. Respect her ideas and she'll return your cooperation with true friendship. The walls are also very thin. Gossip and loud conversations carry far.

Big Sisters

Your big sister in the dorm can be a helping hand. Do not hesitate to confide in her and ask her advice. She can be of invaluable assistance, particularly during orientation, registration, and the first hectic days of classes.

Freshman Counselors

The student counselors in your dorm have been trained to help you with some of the more baffling little problems that often turn up. Whether it's dates or grades, or what to do in general, you will find them sympathetic listeners. With someone to listen to, your problem is half gone!

Social Graces

Most of you know what to do and when to do it, so just a few special words of etiquette advice. Stand up whenever a dean, housemother, or other woman enters the room, especially a guest. Always introduce your guest to the housemother. Avoid chewing gum in public, smoking while walking across campus, public displays of affection, and embarrassment for yourself and others by your conduct in the Dining Hall and at parties.

Clothes

A limited, moderate, but adjustable wardrobe with an emphasis on casual clothes will be the most useful. Classes, warm weather . . . cottons. Classes, colder weather . . . blouses, sweaters, skirts. Coats . . . light jacket, winter coat, raincoat, boots. Football games . . . heels and hose, tailored suits or dresses. Parties . . . wool and crepe dresses, heels and hose. Teas . . . afternoon dresses, hats and gloves. Church . . . dresses, suits, hats, and gloves. Special dates . . . cocktail dresses. Formal dances . . . gowns, long or short.

Dorm Facilities

Dormitory rooms contain beds, desks, straight chairs, one lamp, dressers, and usually one closet. Sheets and towels can be rented for $26 a year from a laundry service. These are changed once a week. You will need your own blankets, and pillow. Dormitories have washing machines, dryers, and ironing boards. You will need to supply your own irons. Sheets can not be laundered in the washing machines.

Automobiles

If you are one of the lucky coeds to own a car on campus, you must register it during Registration and must park in your designated parking area only. A car can be a handicap as there are many more cars than parking places. Tickets for illegal parking are very high.

our "Traditional Norm"

"I suppose there is in every art, as there is in every society, not exactly a set of fixed rules but a traditional norm, a way of living and behaving, which the Greeks might call Themis—the thing that is expected, that is always done, and which implies of course a number of things that are not Themis, that are simply 'not done', at least by people who behave themselves."

(GILBERT MURRAY, "ARE OUR PEARLS REAL?" THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY, JUNE 1955.)

We at the University of Maryland hope that our students will acquire this "traditional norm" which for us is a kindly, gracious way of living. No set of rules can cover a philosophy of life, although these rules are designed to point the way to considerate, sane, and pleasant relationships with other people. However, anyone who cares about being a fine person, and who believes that poise, generosity, gentleness, integrity, and honesty are among the most important things in life, will find it easy to understand and keep our rules. Mature self-discipline is a wonderful aid to happiness, paradoxical as that may seem.

We sincerely trust that your experience at Maryland will be a challenge to your intellect and an opportunity to grow in wisdom and charm. The best of luck to you all!

SIGNING OUT AND IN

- A. Definition: Signing out and in consists of recording required information on individual forms at the residence desk upon departure from the campus at any time and from the residence after 8 p. m. and upon return.
- B. "Campus:" This means the area including the University buildings and grounds, sorority and fraternity houses, and the College Park commercial district.
- C. Procedure:
 - 1. Each student must personally sign herself out and in.
 - 2. The following minimum information must be included:
 - a. Time of departure (according to the official dormitory clock).
 - b. Expected return (usually 10:30 p. m. or 12:45 a. m.).
 - c. Destination (address and telephone, if known).
 - d. With whom and how (indicate last name).
 - e. Exact time in (according to the Official dormitory clock).
 - 3. Move red tab accordingly:
 - a. Tab at extreme right indicates that the student is in residence.
 - b. Tab at extreme left indicates an over-night.

- c. Tab at middle indicates that the student will return before closing hour that evening.

- D. Each woman is on her honor to sign out correctly, to obey the University and state regulations which apply to conduct even if signed out for the weekend, and to behave with consideration and politeness wherever she may be. It is essential to know where she is in case of emergency.

SPECIAL SIGN OUTS

- A. Phoning In and Leaving Late: See chart on pages 16 and 17 in column Latest time one can sign out.
- B. Illness: In case of illness or any family emergency be sure to see the house director. Sign out for an indefinite time. Bring back a note from parents or doctor so these leaves may be excused.

CLOSING HOURS

A. When the front door is locked, the residence is officially closed. (See Chart pages 16 and 17.)

B. Return after closing hours: In emergency cases when delayed or unable to return before the residence closing hour, a student must call her director and also notify the campus police. After 10:30 p.m. all calls to the University go through the campus police. If a student does not return to the dormitory, her parents and the campus police are notified; a call will help to avoid much worry and confusion.

LATENESS

A. Definition: A student who returns to her residence after the expected time of return that she has recorded on her card is considered late. Note: Sign out for the latest possible time. However if you sign out for 12:45 and return later than 10:30, (not 10:40 if you have late minutes) this counts as a late leave, not as an lateness.

B. Procedures: All latenesses of less than thirty minutes are reported by the girl herself or by the desk worker to the residence judicial board. All unexcused latenesses of more than thirty minutes are referred by them to the campus judicial board.

C. Penalties:

1. Penalties vary with circumstances but generally consist of revoking 10:30's or late leaves, assigning approved odd jobs in the residence, or "campusing".
2. A "campus" may be defined as:
 - a. Residence Campus—confinement to residence after 7 p. m. with no callers permitted.
 - b. Room Campus—confinement to residence room after 7 p. m. with no phone calls or visitors permitted.
 - c. Sign-in Campus—student signs in hourly all day when not in class and is confined to room after 7 p. m.
3. Judicial Board must be attended before all other meetings.

D. Accumulated Latenesses:

1. Each woman student is granted the privilege of ten accumulated late minutes for each semester. A woman student may not be late more than three times even if this totals less than three minutes.
2. If a student has accumulated more than ten late minutes or has had more than three latenesses, an automatic Saturday night campus will be given which must be taken the Saturday after the lateness.
3. When latenesses total fifteen to thirty minutes, there will be an automatic Saturday night campus, plus whatever penalty the residence judicial board decides upon.
4. If a student has been late more than five times, the residence judicial board must refer her case to the campus judicial board.
